

REMEMBER YOUR PURPOSE

Do you have a feeling that you are here for something bigger than what you are doing now? Do you allow yourself to pursue that feeling and to follow that path? We are all born with a special gift that we are meant to bring to this planet. Your gift is that special something that comes easily to you, and when you are engaged in that activity you lose track of time. It also brings you great joy. You deserve to do work that you love.

Here are some questions to think and journal about to become aware of your unique gifts. Pay attention to your feelings when you are journaling. Also, look for any reoccurring themes.

What are your strengths?

Once you have more clarity, take action towards your idea every single day. Practice curiosity, courage and commitment. Use your curiosity to explore what brings you pleasure and interests you. Courage is the mindset you will use to keep pursuing your ideas, even if it makes you feel scared or uncomfortable. Commitment is your way of showing up for yourself and confirming your dreams matter.
